Word for the Month: FREEDOM

Scripture of the Month: Book of Galatians

Thought for the Month:

The cross and the lynching tree are the two most emotionally charged symbols in the history of the African American community. In The Cross and the Lynching Tree, theologian James H. Cone explores these symbols and their interconnection in the history and souls of black folk. Both the cross and the lynching tree represent the worst in human beings and at the same time a thirst for life that refuses to let the worst determine our final meaning. While the lynching tree symbolized white power and black death, the cross symbolizes divine power and black life God overcoming the power of sin and death. For African Americans, the image of Jesus, hung on a tree to die, powerfully grounded their faith that God was with them, even in the suffering of the lynching era.

Emphasis for the Month: African American Heritage

We’ll Understand It Better By and By

Verse 1

We are tossed and driven on the restless sea of time; somber skies and howling tempests oft succeed a bright sunshine; in that land of perfect day, when the mists are rolled away, we will understand it better by and by.

Verse 2

We are often destitute of the things that life demands, want of food and want of shelter, thirsty hills and barren lands; we are trusting in the Lord, and according to God’s word, we will understand it better by and by.

Verse 3

Trials dark on every hand, and we cannot understand all the ways of God would lead us to that blessed promised land; but he guides us with his eye, and we’ll follow till we die, for we’ll understand it better by and by.

Verse 4

Temptations, hidden snares often take us unawares, and our hearts are made to bleed for a thoughtless word or deed; and we wonder why the test when we try to do our best, but we’ll understand it better by and by.

Refrain:

By and by, when the morning comes, when the saints of God are gathered home, we’ll tell the story how we’ve overcome, for we’ll understand it better by and by.

The Storm Is Passing Over

Take courage my soul and let us journey on, Though the night is dark and I am far from home; Thanks be to God, the morning light appears

The storm is passing over The storm is passing over The storm is passing over, Hallelu

Hallelujah Hallelujah Hallelujah.

The storm is passing over The storm is passing over The storm is passing over, Hallelu

10:00 am

We celebrate the music of black composers through music, anthems, spirituals, hymns, and gospel songs.

Commentaries by Rev. Dr. lanther Mills and Rev. Ryan Wise
A NOTE ABOUT OUR BLACK COMPOSERS

BISHOP CHARLES PRICE JONES

He was an American hymnist and religious leader and founder of a major black denomination-Church of Christ (Holiness) USA. He is the composer of the hymn I WILL MAKE THE DARKNESS LIGHT where he was inspired by Ephesians 6:12. God says HE will bring down those strongholds in high places.

MATTIE L. ROBERTSON

She is a composer, pianist and music educator. Her arrangement of the hymn I MUST TELL JESUS was featured in the motion picture film “Hard Ball” and she dedicated this song to the Metropolitan Baptist Church Sanctuary Choir of Chicago. She is a member of the Frazier Chorale (Gospel Music Workshop of America) of which our Minister of Music is also a member.

EDWIN HAWKINS

Edwin Hawkins was a gospel musician, pianist, composer and arranger. He is best known for the song OH HAPPY DAY which became a turning point for sacred music back in the 1960’s because it crossed over into being played on radio stations which played mostly secular music. It became an international hit placing no.1 on the singles chart in several countries.

DR. ROBERT FRYSON

He was a singer and composer who was living in Washington DC at the time of his death. He gave many workshops in the DC area and was sought after for solo work as well as his singing group. Probably many people know of one of his most familiar compositions, GOD IS.

PHILLIP MCINTYRE

Phillip was an organist, composer and a musician who served as organist/choir director at churches in Washington DC and Baltimore. He also was a former associate music professor at UDC.
DR. WENDELL WHALUM

Gospel musician, preacher, educator, organist and conductor. He was a faculty member at Morehouse College for his entire professional career and the Morehouse College Glee Club gained national and international fame under his leadership. His compositions and arrangements are particularly well known among black churches.

MOSES HOGAN

Mr. Hogan was one of the most celebrated contemporary arrangers of the spiritual. He was an internationally renown pianist and conductor. He organized his own professional chorale to especially feature his arrangements and compositions as well as forming other choirs. In his short time here on his earthly journey, he created many classic arrangements of spirituals.

JESTER HAIRSTON

Mr. Hairston was a leading expert during his time on the Negro Spiritual and choral music. He was a composer, songwriter, arranger, choral conductor and an actor. He was assistant conductor of the “Hall Johnson Choir” in New York City for 15 years and he trained choirs for radio and Broadway musicals. Probably two of his spirituals arrangements that are most familiar are “Amen” and “In Dat Great Gittin’ Up Mornin’.”

FRED NELSON III

This musician is from the city of many famous gospel musicians-Chicago. His father was the senior organist and passed the mantle on to his son when he retired who is now the musical director and organist at the First Church of Deliverance. He writes and arranges music for commercials as another part of his musical career.

FRANKLIN D. WILLIAMS

He was a gospel vocalist, musician, recording artist and a record company executive. He was an early member of the Williams Brothers which was a family quartet his father organized in 1960. His song “Your Grace and Mercy” is well known among black church communities across the nation and is considered one of the great gospel songs of the 20th century.
NOLIN WILLIAMS, JR.

Our choral postlude today is composed by Mr. Williams who is a native Washingtonian. A composer, artistic director, music director, pianist, organist and minister, he is the past Minister of Music at the historic Metropolitan Baptist Church here in the Washington DC area. Nolan is a cultural curator who uses his art to advocate, educate and inspire.

REV. DR. CHARLES ALBERT TINDLEY

Our gathering hymn today which is probably one of the most familiar and beloved hymns in the black church today is by this great composer. WE’LL UNDERSTAND IT BETTER BY AND BY (Often just known as By and By). Rev. Tindley was an American Methodist minister and gospel music composer. He pastored one of the largest Methodist congregations serving the African-American community—Tindley Temple in Philadelphia. His songs were an outgrowth of his preaching ministry and he has often been referred to as “The Prince of Preachers” as well as “One of the founding fathers of African-American gospel music.”

KEVIN BOND

A native of Chicago, as a 19 year old prodigy, he became organist for the highly acclaimed EDWIN HAWKINS MUSIC AND ARTS SEMINAR MASS CHOIR. Having been a music director and keyboardist under the Hawkins umbrella afforded him many wonderful music opportunities. He has collaborated with many artists such as Stephanie Mills and the Kurt Carr Singers just to name a few. Presently he is Director of Worship and Arts at the Greater Travelers Rest Baptist Church in Decatur GA under the pastorate of E. Dewey Smith, Jr.

ALMA BAZEL ANDROZZO

An American composer, pianist, song-writer and lyricist who grew up in Philadelphia. Her most famous song "If I Can Help Somebody" was written for the National Tuberculosis Society in 1945 and has been recorded by many artists including Billy Eckstein and Mahalia Jackson.

WILLIAM HENRY SMITH

A composer and arranger born in Springfield, Massachusetts. He is best known for his arrangement of the spiritual "Ride the Chariot" which was published in 1939. He served as Dean of Music and directed the Wiley College Choir in Marshall, Texas.

Embracing The Uncertain
A Lenten Study for Unsteady Times

Just turning on the news lets us know we are living in uncertain times. Economic instabilities, eruptions of violence, and natural catastrophes can alter the lives and landscapes of entire communities. Our individual lives are often just as unsteady: relationships can break, plans can falter, and confidence can fail. The reality is that in our fast-changing, unpredictable world there are few guarantees in life. It’s those who are willing to embrace uncertainty and make the risky decision to follow Jesus despite the many "unknowns" who will reap the greatest rewards. Embracing the Uncertain invites readers this Lent to engage and wrestle with life’s uncertainties, not ignore them.

Rev. Dr. Ianther M. Mills, Senior Pastor
Dear Asburyans:

We are excited to share plans for Asbury’s 2021 Women’s Day celebration, Sunday, March 14, 10:00 a.m. Despite the challenges and constraints of the pandemic, we are grateful to God for bringing us this far and we are faithful that the God we love and serve will bless us to gather for in-person worship once again—soon. We are proud to announce that Dr. Christina Greer has agreed to be our Women’s Day speaker. Dr. Greer is an Associate Professor of Political Science and American Studies at Fordham University in New York. She also is a frequent political commentator for several media outlets, including MSNBC and NY1.

The theme for this year’s Women’s Day is Women United to Transform Lives. Our Asbury Family has consistently and fully supported Women’s Day, and again this year, we are counting on you to help make this a joyous and spirit-filled time of worship and music. This year, a portion of funds raised for Women’s Day will be contributed to the Adrienne Terry Fund for Affordable Housing. The fund was established to honor Reverend Terry and her commitment to fair housing. Reverend Terry briefly served as an Associate Pastor at Asbury.

Unfortunately, we will not see your smiling faces in the Fellowship Hall and the narthex as you make your contributions, but we are confident we can count on your generous financial support of Women’s Day 2021. There are several ways to give, including electronically or by mail. Again this year, we are hoping to enlist 100 Women of Asbury to contribute $100 each. If you are able, please consider contributing more than $100 to support programs such as Angel Tree and Asbury seniors. We are grateful for any amount you are able to contribute in support of Women’s Day 2021.

If you have questions or need additional information, contact UMW President Wilhelmina Goff, 301-249-8850, or any member of Asbury’s United Methodist Women. Thank you for supporting the women of Asbury and helping us to continue our work to transform lives. We look forward to hearing Dr. Greer and worshipping together for Women’s Day 2021, Sunday, March 14, 10:00 a.m. Please join us and invite your family, friends, neighbors, and colleagues.

Faithfully yours,

Dr. Fauci discusses vaccines with Maryland officials.

Among the various questions asked of Dr. Fauci, he answers two of I think are the most pressing questions for our people, whether you can get the virus from the vaccine and skeptical thoughts about the short amount of time it's taken for the development of the vaccine.
